Hi folks, did anyone else contact this nice lady?

I sent her e-mail got the fax and a nice note back.

I think she really wats to give some of this software to hams, hobbists, etc. to play with.

I have promised her I would "consult" with other interested parties, and propose a plan.

This would be a one page summary of why the company should give us some of this neat software for free.

Anyone interested should help me convince her to do so.

Ideas, suggestions, etc all welcome.

If "glowbugs" are not interested, I will move this request to another forum...

Thanks
